

April 8 1945

Dear Baby:

You have hardly gotten away, and I am writing you. I thought I had better send you these notes.

First of all I forgot to tell you Sidney Morten was in last week. He was in town this morning I think expecting to go to camp with the team.

Next I want to tell you the people I have written to and the dates I have asked for.

April 20 Winston Salem (to break the jump to Knoxville)
April 24 Ashville
25 Spartenburg
26 Greenville

I wrote Harden, and asked him if he could arrange for Augusta the 27th, Macon the 28th, Columbia the 30th, and Charlotte the 1st of May. I doubt if he will be able to take care of all these spots or any, but I think this would be the best trip so far as distance is concerned. If you do not approve any of this schedule, let me know right away, so I will not go any further.

I did not have a call from Pearson yet, so I guess he must have left with you.

If we arrange this trip, I think we should try and have Edison come to Richmond the 15th if possible. What do you think?

Love Effa.
